DEMPSTER/GREENWOOD BEACH CLEANUP ILLINOIS COUNCIL OF SKIN AND SCUBA DIVERS

Saturday, September 16, 2023

9:00 AM to 12:00 PM CDT

Greenwood St. Beach

Greenwood Street at 1401 Sheridan Road · Evanston, IL

How to find us

Illinois Council of Skin and Scuba Divers will have their banner up

We will start at 9:00. Although the beach will be officially closed, restrooms will be open. We will do shore cleanup. Although this is a cleanup, what we really do is collect data on the changing conditions along this coastline in terms of trash pollution of all types. Data is collected on the type and quantity of trash collected and compared to data that is collected from previous years. This is important work.

This event is part of the Ocean Conservancy's International Coastal Cleanup program and is sponsored locally by the Alliance for the Great Lakes. The Illinois Council of Skin and Scuba Divers will be doing our part this year. In 2019, more than 6,800 September Adopt-a-Beach™ volunteers cleaned up debris and recorded what they found at 260 sites around the Great Lakes. You can help make this year's event even bigger. This is a great late season event that is fun, and also contributes to a better environment. Hope to see you

PRESIDENTS' NIGHT

Saturday, October 14, 2023

Cocktails (cash bar) 6:00 PM, Dinner 6:30 PM

Since 1973, hungry folks clamoring for cabbage rolls, kielbasa and pierogi have been following the glittering lights to Sawa's Old Warsaw, 9200 W Cermak Rd. in Broadview.

Founder and World War II veteran Walter Sawa emigrated to the United States in 1948 after escaping a prisoner-of-war camp. Prior to serving in both the Polish and British armies, he worked as a pork butcher at a Polish delicatessen and brought those skills to Broadview when the budding restaurateur opened his third restaurant in as many years.

Walter's son Stuart, the youngest of five, started working at the Broadview restaurant when he was just 13 years old. He worked his way up from "salad boy" to owner and proudly keeps his late father's legacy alive today.
